The Shoppes at Chino Hills

High fashion and delectable dining are making an impact in Chino Hills. Within the past year, The Shoppes at Chino Hills has welcomed XXI Forever, Harveys, Bedol What's Next, Le Creuset, Dolcissimo gourmet cupcakes, Final Score Apparel, Wood Ranch BBQ & Grill, and Jody Maroni's Sausage Kingdom.

“Find the quintessential must-have outfit at White House Black Market”

Brighton's Silverwood BRACELET

Organic shapes and iconic Brighton elements highlight this unique bracelet ($48).

Two For one

Two looks...one when you feel like being yourself, one when you don't. The XXI Forever outfit above has Forever 21 yellow and charcoal cardigans ($19.80 each), scarf ($9.80), feather headband ($4.80), and Heritage 1981 burnout tee ($9.90). Pictured left is a sexy ensemble from H&M.

Mehndi Medallion SHOULDER BAG

Named after the ancient Eastern art of henna design, this Brighton shoulder bag features more than 40,000 embroidered stitches on the medallion. Five different leathers create the hand-woven strap ($210).

Chico's World TRAVELER

Chico's creates clothing that's stylish, comfortable...and logical. The key to packing is creating numerous outfits with as few items as possible. This layered look follows all the traveling rules. Shirt ($98), cami ($28), necklace ($44), earrings ($20).

More From The SHOPPES

Take advantage of the outdoors this spring at The Shoppes at Chino Hills. Described as "A picturesque, open-air shopping and dining destination" by Glenn C. Miller, property manager and director of marketing at The Shoppes, this is the place to meet all your spring shopping needs. "A must-have for women this spring is a classic trench coat. Banana Republic is currently showing them in neutral colors, while Lane Bryant is featuring them in bolder colors and patterns," says Miller. Another popular trend is pairing dresses with longer cardigans, such as the one pictured right from J. Jill (dress ($99), cardigan ($39), sandals ($119)).

Inner Beauty RELEASED

Create this vintage Americana look with the help of Active Ride Shop's tank ($25) and skinny jeans ($45).

Active Beauty EMBRACED

Who says beauty can't be a little rough around the edges? After opening its first store in Chino in 1989, Active Ride Shop has expanded throughout Southern California, proving that there is such a thing as "Active" beauty. This bohemian look features an Active v-neck ($15), Let it be cardigan ($38), and Jett Denim ($45).

Ann Taylor UNLEASHED

Cool, comfortable, classy define the perfect spring/summer look. Find it at Ann Taylor Loft with these rope wedge sandals ($39) and rose bloom skirt ($69) (pictured far left).
